To register for the virtual presentation, on July 20, 2021 send a registration request to virtualminicon@borhs.org and you will receive a password on Wednesday July 21, 2021 via email. Be patient and you will receive your password. If you do not receive a Zoom link by 5:00 PM EDT on July 21, send another email to that same address. The Society’s Zoom subscription allows for only 90 participants. Make your registration early on July 20 in order to ensure you will be able to attend.

Please Note:

The first Presentation, The B&O Railroad's Lake Branch: DeForest Junction to Fairport Harbor (virtual), will be presented a second time at 11:55 AM EDT to allow members in Mountain or Pacific time zones to join the mini-con one hour later without missing the presentation.

Prior to the meeting, if you do not have the Zoom software, you need to install it. Users of PCs and Apple computers go to <https://zoom.us/download>. Click the blue Download button under "Zoom Client for Meetings". The virtual waiting room for participants will open at 8:30 AM EDT. Early entry to the meeting is recommended because of the time needed to verify registration. Participants will enter the virtual waiting room and after the registration is verified will be admitted into the meeting. You can leave and return to the meeting during the day.

The B&O Railroad Historical Society Company Store will be present, but vendor tables will not be available because of space limitations. Two tables will be available for models, photographs, and memorabilia display. Coffee, donuts, and pastries will be available in the morning for a donation.

Information for members attending the Eastern Mini-Con in Eldersburg

There are no hotels located near the Historical Society building in Eldersburg, MD. If you are coming from the south on I-81 and/or the west on I-70, Frederick, MD is probably the best location to look for a motel. Frederick is a 40 minute drive to Eldersburg. If you are coming from the east, north, or south on I-95 or US 29, Columbia, MD is the closest location and a 26 minute drive. The estimated hotel prices do not include taxes and ask about any extra fees. The prices vary at the hotels as they return from the impact of COVID reduced hotel occupancy and staffing problems.
